1. It is not a good day for Paco. He has to run away from Mateo and Nicolás. Those boys intimidate him. He had to run all the way to the market. He gets very tired from running. Page # 1	1* I hate running, and get tired very easily * Why is Paco running from Mateo and Nicolás in the first place * It's sad how Mateo and Nicolás cloude team on Paco
2. Paco doesn't run from his bullies because he scared, but because he needs to be an example for his sisters. He runs as fast as he can to his house. If he keeps running, he will escape Mateo and Nicolás. Page # 2	2* That's awesome how he runs to make his mother happy * My mom tells me I need to be an example for my younger sibling too * How far does he have to run?
3. As Paco is running, he falls down. Nicolás and Mateo catch him and he can no longer escape. They make fun of him and call him "shoe-shine boy". Paco's family doesn't have a lot of money, so he has to shoe-shine for money. Page # 3	3* It is so sad how people feel the need to bully others * What do Paco's parents do for a job * It is sad that Paco has bad shoes with holes in them
4. Nicolás says he needs Paco to shine his shoes but he does not a time. Paco dropped 30$ on the ground when he was running. When he tried to get it, Nicolás took it and would not give it to Paco. Page # 4	4* This page was a little hard to read * Is Nicolás going to pay Paco * It's sad that they took his money when they knew he doesn't have a lot of money

5. Nicolás steals Paco's money that he drops. Paco tries to get it back, but he can't. He lives in El Alto. It's very expensive to live in. And his family is very poor. Page # 5	5. * It's sad they stole his money * This page was kind of hard to read * I'm a little confused
6. It's hard to walk home. His house is high up a hill and he doesn't have money to ride a bus. So he thinks about stuff while he walks. Page # 6	6. * How often does he have to walk home * Why does he go so far away from his home * It's sad he can't ride the bus
7. He gets home and talks to his mom. He says he had a horrible day. He has to get new shoes. Page # 7	7. * I wonder what his mom is thinking * I would cry if I had to tell my mom that * This was a good sized page
8. He tells his mom he lost the money. He does not mention Mateo o Nicolás. His mom says they have no money to buy new shoes but he can have his grandpa's boots Page # 8	8. * Why doesn't he want his mom to know about his bullies * It's sad he can't get any new shoes
9. He looks through his grandpa's closet. He does not find the boots at first. He finds a blanket. He finds photos and a little guitar Page # 9	9. * Did his grandpa die? * Was his grandpa good at playing the guitar * Was he like a Nomad?
10. He finds a wooden object in his grandpa's closet. It is not familiar to him. It's a small statue, and it has realistic eyes. He talks to it. His mom asks to talk but Paco doesn't want to talk Page # 10	10. * Did his grandpa make this statue thing? * Why does he think it's alive? * I think he should talk to his mom
