

Name
Date
Class/Period

FOCUSED BOOK REPORT #3 MINOR CHARACTER, MAJOR IMPACT

Pick a novel that appeals to you and with which you can fulfill the requirements of this assignment. This will be a novel that is both interesting and comprehensible to you. It should be appealing to you and it should not be too hard for you to read—you should be able to read most of it without using a dictionary (looking up a few words per page is OK). Your grade will be based on:

1) Completion of the task outlined below, 2) Evidence that you have read and understood the novel by using the vocabulary and concepts from the book in your answers and 3) The Level of Expression and reflection in your answers.

	Title of novel:
 → → → TASK/FOCUS FOR READING: • DESCRIBE HOW and WHY a minor character (not the main character) had a big impact in the story. (You may also describe how more than one character, a group, or even an object had an impact on the story.) • EXPLAIN the impact of the character(s) with at least three (3) EXAMPLES from the novel. ↑ ↑ For a complete answer you will need to continue on the back of this sheet → → → • What does it seem the author wants us to get from this story?
 DESCRIBE HOW and WHY a minor character (not the main character) had a big impact in the story. (You may also describe how more than one character, a group, or even an object had an impact on the story.) EXPLAIN the impact of the character(s) with at least three (3) EXAMPLES from the novel. ↑ For a complete answer you will need to continue on the back of this sheet → → → What does it seem the author wants us to get from this story?				_
 DESCRIBE HOW and WHY a minor character (not the main character) had a big impact in the story. (You may also describe how more than one character, a group, or even an object had an impact on the story.) EXPLAIN the impact of the character(s) with at least three (3) EXAMPLES from the novel. ↑ For a complete answer you will need to continue on the back of this sheet → → → • What does it seem the author wants us to get from this story?	I rate this book (circle	one):	1 2	3	4 5	6	7	8	9	10
(You may also describe how more than one character, a group, or even an object had an impact on the story.) • EXPLAIN the impact of the character(s) with at least three (3) EXAMPLES from the novel. ↑ For a complete answer you will need to continue on the back of this sheet → → → • What does it seem the author wants us to get from this story?	• •	•		•					icter'	had a l	hig imna	ı ct in the	story
 EXPLAIN the impact of the character(s) with at least three (3) EXAMPLES from the novel. ↑ For a complete answer you will need to continue on the back of this sheet → → → What does it seem the author wants us to get from this story? 													•
What does it seem the author wants us to get from this story?		of the cha	aracter((s) with	n at lea	ast thr	ee (3) EX /	AMP ↑	LES fror	n the no	vel.
What does it seem the author wants us to get from this story?
What does it seem the author wants us to get from this story?
What does it seem the author wants us to get from this story?
What does it seem the author wants us to get from this story?
			F	or a cor	mplete d	answer	you wi	ill nee	ed to c	ontinue d	n the back	k of this sh	$eet \rightarrow \rightarrow \rightarrow$
This novel seems to have been written for what kind of reader?	• What does it seem th	ne author	wants	us to g	et fro	m this	story	/?
• This novel seems to have been written for what kind of reader?
	• This novel seems to I	have been	writte	n for v	vhat k	ind of	reade	er?

"We remember things best when they are organized with everything else we know, when they come with stories attached, rather than as isolated bits of information."—Frank Smith, Reading FAQ