

“We remember things best when they are organized with everything else we know, when they come with stories attached, rather than as isolated bits of information.”

—Frank Smith